Jane Brown

IF ONLY I HAD ...

Jane Brown believes a home doesn't have to be decadent to be beautiful.

"Transforming your environment can be remarkably simple, fast and effective. It doesn't cost the earth and the results can be outstanding. I love objects that add texture and a signature to the home that is a little different. My work is always about the client and making their home the home of their dreams."

Cushions Baubridge & Kay cushions are wonderful. The prints are taken from men's tie patterns. They are duck feather-filled and luxurious silk. They remind me enormously of the edginess I experience shopping for clients in New York.

Sculpture I would adore to have The Kiss by Rodin, but a copy will have to do. It's pretty much priceless.

Painting I saw this painting the other day and fell in love with it.
